

Art in Public Places 2023-2024 ARTWORK SELECTION PANEL APPLICATION

Thank you for your interest in serving on an artwork selection panel. We welcome your active public participation in this process! The City of Loveland Art in Public Places program seeks Loveland residents to serve on artwork selection panels for several public art projects throughout the year. If selected to serve on an artwork selection panel, you will work alongside the Visual Arts Commission to determine which artwork will be included in the City's public art collection.

Serving on an artwork selection panel is typically a 5-10 hour commitment spread out over 1-3 months. Each project will have different requirements for volunteers; however, AIPP staff is available to assist you throughout the process. All jurors will need to have access to a computer and have a general comfort level with navigating a website. Volunteers must keep all information confidential during the jury process as a courtesy to the artists and to keep the integrity of the City's Art in Public Places program intact. Information may not be shared with anyone outside of the jury process.

How to Apply: Please complete the application below to be considered for an artwork selection panel. Due to the limited number of positions available, there is no guarantee of acceptance until notified; however, we will keep your application on file if there are no immediate openings.
